INTRODUCTION

Those who are seeing this family history for the first time may be interested in knowing where I obtained the information in it. Most of it is the result of correspondence with relatives all over the country, many of whom spent endless, patient hours filling out "family group sheets" giving me names, dates and places. I am most grateful to them for their carefulness and consideration.

Information about the older generations of the family came from Denmark, especially from the Rev. A. Moos, pastor of Raarup Parish in which Hans Jørgen Thomsen and his wife and family lived. Pastor Moos retired only recently, and I truly appreciate his assistance.

Spelling

Since many of those who were born and christened in Denmark changed the spelling or pronunciation of their names when they came to America I have tried to use the version, throughout, which the person himself preferred.

Numbering

Each person in this book has a number which identifies him, since in this large family there are several who have the same name. Hans Jørgen and Ane Kjerstine had seven children. Their first, Ane Katrine, is 1, their second, Thomas, is 2, their third, Ane Marie, is 3 and so on.

Ane Marie had three children. The first, Anna Christina is 31, the next, Hans Thomas Ditlev, is 32. Anna Christina's first child is 311, the second, 312. Each generation has its number added to the right of the numbers of the preceding generation. Four numbers indicate that the individual is in the fourth generation after Hans Jørgen and Ane Kjerstine. In the case of a family with more than nine children as in John and Kamille's, numbers over nine are set off with dashes, as 7-11-12.

To identify a person by his number, read it backward by generations. Thus the number above, 7-11-12, identifies Sharyl Margaret Hansen as the second child of the first child (Calvin Theodore Hansen) of the eleventh child (Francis Marion Hansen) of the seventh child (John Hansen) of the original couple.

This book was started with the idea that it would include only the descendants of John Hansen and Kamille Skow. However, so much material became available that it seemed a pity not to pass it on to the descendants of John's brothers and sisters. A member of another branch of the Skow family, in Denmark, had done a great deal of research on that line, and I am glad to be able to include it. There are also a great many more anecdotes about John's family -- it is so much easier to write the stories one has heard since childhood than to persuade other branches of the family to pass on their own!

If this booklet accomplishes nothing more than giving our widely scattered family a closer feeling, I shall be quite satisfied. If, in addition, it adds to our pride in ancestors who were brave enough to leave an established home and pioneer in a strange land with an unknown language, I shall have accomplished what I set out to do.

Raarup Church

PROLOGUE

On the east coast of Jutland, that tongue of earth which is the chief land mass of Denmark, is a beautiful inlet, Vejle Fjord. At its head is the town of Vejle, famous for its unique situation at the foot of a range of hills, overlooking the fjord. There are fine drives to the northern shore of the fjord and inland, and one of these roads leads to the little community of Klejs. There, in the first half of the nineteenth century, lived Hans Jørgen Thomsen, a farmer, butcher, and store-keeper, and his wife, Ane Kjerstine Ditlevsen.

They were, of course, members of the state church, the Danish Luthern Church, and the births of most of their children are in the records of Raarup Church. The church, like most others in Denmark, is a startling white with stepped gables on the roof and the tower, topped with warm, red tiles.

Hans Jørgen Thomsen's own birth is listed in Raarup Parish records. He was born November 25, 1806. The state archives in Viborg give his father's name as Thomas Jørgensen and his mother's as Ane Cathrine Olesdatter. Because at that time in Denmark each person took his father's name as his own surname, the family name was changed with each generation. We can be sure that Thomas Jørgensen's father's given name was Jørgen. Ane Kjerstine Ditlevsen was also born in Raarup Parish, on April 14, 1812. All that is known so far of her parentage is that her father's name must have been Ditlev. The couple named two of their four sons for their grandfathers and another for his great-grandfather.

For some reason the Raarup "churchbook" records the births of only five of the couple's seven children. One daughter, Ane Katrine, left a memorandum of her own birth date, but it has not been possible to obtain information on the remaining son, Søren. Following the rule of probability, his birth has been arbitrarily placed in a six-year gap between that of the youngest daughter and that of the youngest son. These, then are the children of Hans and Ane Thomsen, all born at Klejs, Denmark:

Ane Katrine Hansen	-	July 10,	1836
Thomas Hansen	-	October 13,	1840
Ane Marie Hansen	-	July 18,	1842
Ditlev Hansen	-	February 11	1844
Mariane Kjerstine Hansen	-	January 26,	1846
Søren Hansen
Jørgen (John) Hansen	-	September 20,	1852

It has not been practical to do complete research into the lives of all of them. From what we know of life in Denmark at that time, it is reasonable that each of the children in turn was confirmed in the church at about fourteen years of age, that the boys went to work for neighboring farmers and in time served their required terms in the Danish army, and that eventually several of them began to look to America as a land of opportunity.

Hans Jørgen Thomsen died at Klejs on February 26, 1864, aged fifty-seven. His widow survived him almost exactly two years, following him on March 9, 1866, at the age of fifty-three. Three of their children had families of their own before they decided to leave for America. John, the bachelor son, emigrated in 1879, and it is probable that Ane Marie, her husband Nels Marius Hansen, and their two children went at the same time. Ditlev and his wife and daughter joined them about 1887, and Katrine and her son some time before 1893. All of them settled in Monona County in the northwest part of Iowa, which borders on the Missouri River. It is a county of yellow clay hills rising from flat river bottom land of rich "gumbo" soil, a county which contains some of the best farm land in the nation.

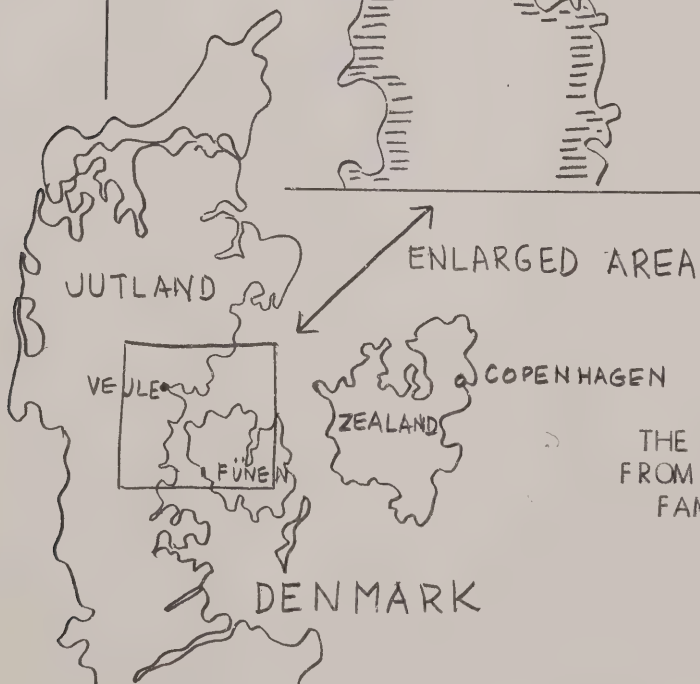

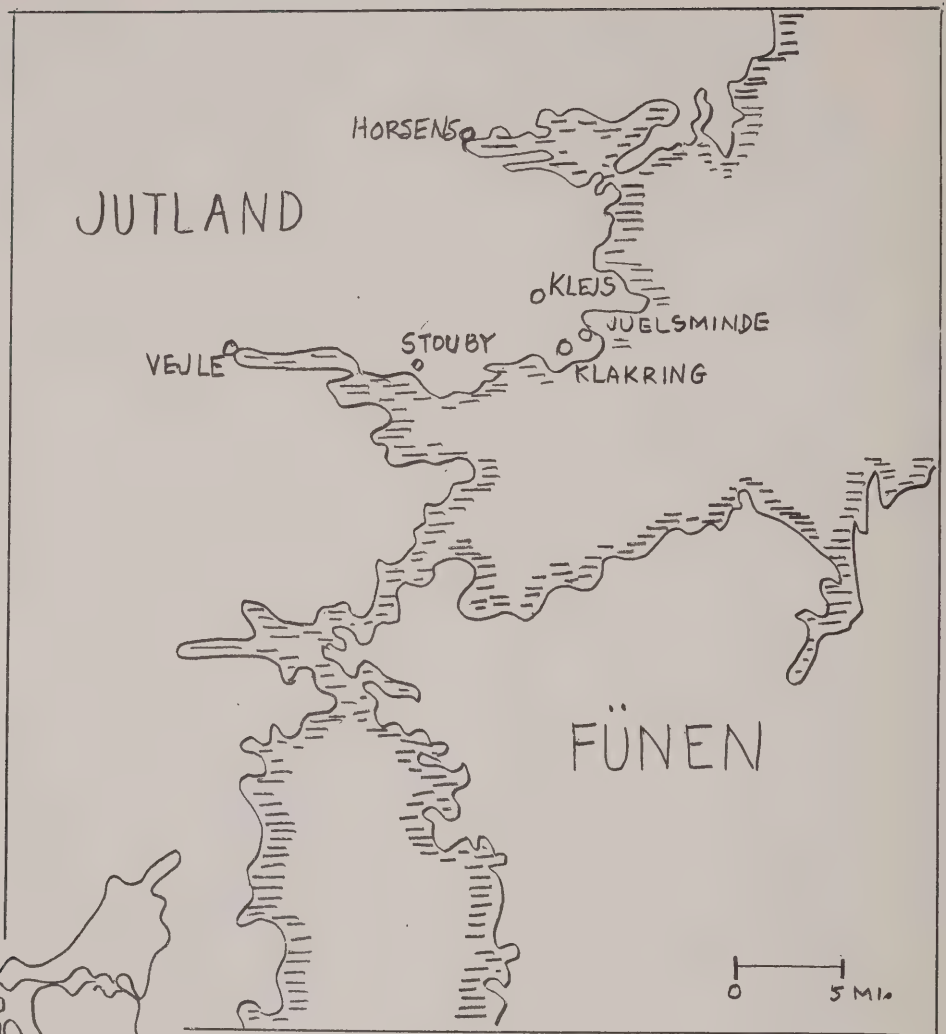

This book lists 348 descendants of Hans Jørgen Thomsen and Ane Kjerstine Ditlevsen. It includes the American descendants of Mariane Kjerstine Hansen, although she herself did not come to this country. It does not include the eight children of Søren, who remained in Denmark, nor any of their descendants.

Five of the Hansen sons and daughters, christened in the little white parish church in Raarup, Denmark, now lie near each other in the graveyard of another little white church near Moorhead, Iowa. Their descendants are to be found in all parts of the country, from Guam and Hawaii to Florida, and there seems to be every likelihood that this family will continue to increase.

ANE KATRINE HANSEN

I ANE KATRINE HANSEN, known as Trina, was apparently the eldest daughter of Hans Jørgen Thomsen and Ane Kjerstine Ditlevsen, although her birth does not seem to be recorded in Raarup parish as were those of the younger children. Her only son left a notebook in which he stated that his mother was born July 10, 1836, at Klejs, and died November 26, 1920, in Omaha, Nebraska; and that his father, Hans J. Nielsen, was born August 10, 1839, and died July 24, 1874, in Denmark. Trina and her son came to the United States before 1893. For a while she lived with the family of her youngest brother, John, and later she made her home with her son and his family. She is buried at Moorhead, Iowa. Her only son was

II HANS JORGEN NIELSEN, who was born November 12, 1867, at Klejs, Denmark. He learned the printing trade in that country, and after he came to America, he was a printer for the Danish Pioneer in Omaha, Nebraska. On June 13, 1893, at Moorhead, Iowa, he married Mrs. Marie Jensen-Holm Daugaard, the young widow of Anton Daugaard. She was born November 15, 1863, at Tøstrup, Denmark, and died June 6, 1941, at Peetz, Colorado. When they were married, she had two small daughters, Mary and Antonia Daugaard, who grew up with their three sons. H. J. -- he was always known by his initials -- died September 2, 1944, in Omaha and is buried at Moorhead. He and his wife were Christian Scientists. They had three sons.

III Marcus T. Nielsen was born April 21, 1894, at Turin, Iowa. On November 12, 1919, at Omaha, Nebraska, he married Helene Rahn, who was born at Omaha January 16, 1897. He operates the Marc T. Nielsen Interiors and the Country Shop on Old Suman Road, Valparaiso, Indiana.

II2 William J. Nielsen was born October 15, 1896, at Turin, Iowa. On November 13, 1917, at St. Joseph, Missouri, he married Helen Rowley, who was born November 21, 1897, the daughter of Burt Martin Rowley and Lucille Elizabeth Lahr. William Nielsen died December 9, 1956, and is buried at Los Angeles. Mrs. Nielsen lives at 543 North Harvard Boulevard, Los Angeles 4, California. Three sons were born to them.

1121 Marc Rowley Nielsen was born August 31, 1918, at Maryville, Missouri. On November 30, 1939, at Santa Ana, California, he married Irene Fred Ross, who was born July 8, 1914, the daughter of Fred A. Ross and Nanine Patton. Marc is a department foreman for Firestone Tire Company, and they live at 7356 Cloverlawn Drive, Hollydale, California. They have three children.

11211 Diane Irene Nielsen was born January 29, 1941, at Lynwood, California.

11212 Patric Marc Nielsen was born April 3, 1947, at Lynwood.

11213 Kerry Ross Nielsen was born July 1, 1954, at Bell, California.

1122 William Edwin Nielsen was born August 23, 1920, at Maryville, Missouri. On January 9, 1944, at Los Angeles, California, he married Ruth Caroline DeWar, who was born June 10, 1924, the daughter of Herbert Ford DeWar and Lillian Rebecca Perdue. They live at 5511 Sunnyslope, Van Nuys, California, and he is sales supervisor for Weston Biscuit Company in Burbank, California. They are Presbyterians and have three children.

11221 Terry Rogers Nielsen was born April 2, 1945.

11222 James William Nielsen was born July 26, 1947.

11223 Nancy Ruth Nielsen was born August 29, 1950.

1123 Donald Albert Nielsen was born August 23, 1929, at Los Angeles, California. He lives with his mother at 543 North Harvard Boulevard, Los Angeles, and is a serviceman for Firestone Tire and Rubber Company.

113 Victor Nielsen was born March 18, 1900, at Omaha, Nebraska. He married Thelma Kretschmer, and they had one daughter.

1131 Betty Jean Nielsen was born January 9, 1923, at Council Bluffs, Iowa. When her mother remarried, she took her step-father's name, Bothe, legally.

Victor married Helen Howe in May, 1933. He died February 21, 1940, in Spencer, Iowa. They had two children.

1132 Helen K. Nielsen was born March 15, 1934, at Spencer, Iowa.

1133 Marc Howe Nielsen was born February 15, 1936, at Spencer.

THOMAS HANSEN

- 2 THOMAS HANSEN is listed in the churchbook of Raarup Parish, in which Klejs is situated, as born October 13, 1840. He was confirmed in that church April 15, 1855, when he was 14 years old, and was listed as having good marks in both knowledge and conduct. His occupation was given as farmhand with Farmer Iver Pedersen of Gramrode. Some of his nieces and nephews remember that he was married, and that he lived and died in Denmark and left no children.

ANE MARIE HANSEN

3 ANE MARIE HANSEN, known as Marie, was born July 18, 1842, at Klejs. In 1869, when she was 27, she was married to Nels Marius Hansen, who was born September 2, 1843, at Klakring. The name Hansen was then, as it is now, extremely common in Denmark, and does not mean that they were related, but only that both their fathers were named Hans. They were married at Horsens in Denmark, and a son and daughter were born to them before they emigrated to America. Nels Hansen was a farmer in Monona County, Iowa, where he belonged to the Lutheran Church. He died March 24, 1897, at Turin, Iowa, and is buried near Moorhead. Ane Marie died at Turin April 3, 1907, and is also buried near Moorhead. They had three children, Anna Christina, Hans Thomas Ditlev, and Jorgine (Gena) Hansen.

31 ANNA CHRISTINA HANSEN was born January 10, 1873, at Horsens, Denmark, and came to America with her parents when she was very young. She became a seamstress, and on April 17, 1895, in Onawa, Iowa, when she was 22 years old, she became the bride of George Peter Mortensen, a farmer, who was born November 16, 1861, near Horsens. He was the son of Peter Mortensen, who operated a furniture store in Denmark, and his wife, Maren. Anna Christina, known as Stina, was a member of the Christian (Disciples of Christ) Church. She died January 26, 1933, at Moorhead and is buried there. Her husband died September 2, 1937, also at Moorhead. They had seven children, Harry Roy, Olga Marie, Alma Viola, Mary Christina, Emma Malvina, Esther Louise, and Axel Bennett V. Mortensen.

311 Harry Roy Mortensen was born March 7, 1901, at Moorhead. On August 28, 1933, at Glenss Ferry, Idaho, he married Esther Hattie Kortman, a schoolteacher, who was born September 2, 1902, at Charter Oak, Iowa. She is the daughter of John Frederick Kortman and Ida Miller. The Mortensens are members of the Christian Church, and Harry is a banker in Moorhead, where they reside. They have three children, George John Jane Maren, and Jill Karen Mortensen.

3111 George John Mortensen was born June 12, 1934, at Moorhead. On August 12, 1955, at Moorhead he married Ruth Crawford, who was born September 12, 1935, the daughter of Isaac Raymond Crawford and Agnes Christine Jensen. He was a commercial instructor in a Council Bluffs, Iowa, high school when he died October 22, 1961, aged 27. They had twin daughters.

MARIANE KJERSTINE HANSEN

5 MARIANE KJERSTINE HANSEN was born at Klejs January 26, 1846. It has proved impossible to learn her first husband's name, since their only daughter was adopted and took the name of her foster parents. Her second husband was Jesper Christensen, and they had twins, both of whom died at birth. Mariane and Jesper lived at Horsens, Denmark, and are buried there. Her only surviving daughter was 51 ANNA CHRISTINE THOMSEN, who was born February 24, 1868, at Horsens, Denmark. She was adopted by a family named Thomsen and came to America with them about 1886, settling at Hutchinson, Minnesota. On December 13, 1887, at Hutchinson she was married to Jens Nielsen, son of Niels Rasmussen. He was born February 8, 1861, at Klakring, Denmark. He died December 6, 1946, at Onawa, Iowa. Both are buried in Ingemann Lutheran Church Cemetery near Moorhead, Iowa. They had five children.

SØREN HANSEN

- 6 SØREN HANSEN's birth date has not been found in the parish records of Raarup Church. He may have been born between Ane Katrine (1836) and Thomas (1840), or he may have been born between Mariane Kjerstine (1846) and Jørgen (1852). Since the later date seems more likely, he has been arbitrarily placed there. Letters to one of his sons in Horsens, Denmark, have produced no replies over a period of three years. A friend-of-a-friend has visited his family and has been promised that the information will be sent, but it has not yet appeared.

Søren and his wife had eight children, at least three of whom came to America. Jørgen and Anna returned to Denmark, and Lorena, who lived in Fremont, Nebraska, left no descendants. No numbers have been assigned to this family, since the order of their births is not known. Two of the daughters, Vita and another, are still living in Horsens.

Søren Christian Hansen is a schoolteacher and resides at Kragssvej 49, Horsens, Denmark. His wife is named Hanne.

Lorena Hansen married William Martin. They lived in Fremont, Nebraska, and she is buried near Moorhead, Iowa.

JOHN HANSEN

- 7 JOHN HANSEN (baptized JØRGEN) was born September 20, 1852, the seventh and youngest child of Hans Jørgen Thomsen and Ane Kjerstine Ditlevsen. He was not quite 12 years old when his father died, and he was brought up by an uncle. He served his time in the Danish army, and came to America in 1879 at the age of 27, settling in Monona County, Iowa. He hired out first to a farmer who, being told that his name was Jørgen, said, "Oh, yes -- 'John!'" and the young man was thereafter known as John Hansen, although the correct translation of Jørgen is George.

On October 25, 1882, in Onawa, Iowa, he married Kamille Skow, who was born September 10, 1862, at Klakring in Juelsminde Parish, about three miles from her future husband's birthplace. Her father, Hans Christian Skov (also spelled Schou) was born in Raarup Parish, the son of a well-to-do couple who are said to have disowned him when he married against their wishes. His father, Jens Olesen Skov (born 1780, died August 25, 1833) was employed by the Royal Krag Juel Vind Frijs family as bailiff at Boller Castle. After his marriage to Bodil Cathrine Zacho (born in 1781), a ladies' maid to the countess at Frijsensborg Castle, he received a "faestebrev" which gave him ownership of the large farm Ørnsvig, belonging to Boller Castle. Bodil Cathrine was the daughter of Jens Peter Zacho (born 1753), head carpenter at Frijsensborg, and Karen Marie Petersdatter (born 1757). The Zacho family is said to be of Italian origin.

Kamille Skow's mother, Kjersten Jørgensdatter, was born December 7, 1823, at Gammelbye in Stouby Parish, near Klakring, Raarup, Juelsminde and Klejs. She was the daughter of Jørgen Pedersen and Inger Marie Sørensdatter.

Kamille's eldest brother, Lawrence Peter Skow, (1853-1938) left a touching autobiography for his children to read after his death, and in it he tells this story of Hans and Kjersten Skow:

From 1848 to 1851 Denmark and Germany were at war, and as Father as a young man was enlisted

BOLLER is an estate which belongs to the Royal Krag Juel Vind Frijs family. There Jens Olesen Schou, born 1780, was farm bailiff. He married Bodil Cathrine Zacho (born 1781), daughter of Jens Peter Zacho, who was head carpenter at Frijsensborg Castle, another property of the family, and his wife, Karen Marie Petersdatter. On his marriage, Jens Olesen Schou was given a large farm, Ørnsvig, by the Countess Krag Juel Vind. Jens and Bodil had five children. After his death in 1834 Ørnsvig went to their daughter, Katrine Maria. The youngest son, Hans Christian Schou (born 1825, died 1873), who married Kjersten Jørgensdatter (born 1823 at Stouby), against his mother's wishes, received only a much smaller farm, Vesterager Gaard.

VESTERAGER GAARD, near Klakring, is in Juelsminde Parish on the east coast of Jutland, Denmark, south of Horsens. It was the home of Hans Christian Schou and his wife, Kjersten Jørgensdatter, and eight of their nine children were born there.

All but the eldest daughter, Inger Marie, came to America. The youngest girl, Kamille, was married to John (Jørgen) Hansen, and they lived at Moorhead, Iowa where they reared a family of eleven children.

to fight for his Country, but he didn't like to leave his girl (my Mother) in the province of Jutland while he was training in Copenhagen, she went with him to Copenhagen and worked as a cook. After the war they married and settled down in Copenhagen where he worked as a time-keeper for a Contractor and Builder. In 1853-54 the Cholera devastated Southern Europe and several cases occurred in the City of Copenhagen, so Father and Mother got scared and thought they had better go back to their old home near Horsens, where Father bought a small Farm, and where the other of my Brothers and Sisters were born, we were 3 Boys and 4 Girls.

Kamille Skow left Denmark for America in 1880 when she was 18 years old, with her brother Lawrence, who had been in America before, working in Boston from 1870 to 1873. They settled first at Dunlap, Iowa, where Kamille worked in a railroad hotel and as a hired girl. She also worked for families in Onawa.

A legend which cannot be documented, but which sounds quite likely, is that a friend or relative of John Hansen, hearing that Kamille Skow was leaving for Iowa, asked her to take him some hand-knit gray wool socks, and it was in delivering the gift that the couple met.

On their marriage they bought 35 acres of farm land, and their first home was in a cave or dug-out in a clay hillside. Such a home was not unusual for those days in that unforested land where lumber was scarce and expensive. The only natural light came from a glass panel in the door, and the housewifely Kamille covered it with a lace curtain, repeatedly taken down by her husband, who didn't want any "rag" on his only window. However, each time he took it down, she put it up again, a pretty good indication of the characters of the strong-minded couple.

John Hansen filed his first papers for citizenship in the district court of Monona County, Iowa, July 31, 1886, and his second papers September 25, 1888. He was one of the early members of Lodge 77, Danish Brotherhood of America, at Turin, Iowa. He helped to found and build the first Ingemann Lutheran Church near Moorhead, and in his lifetime built three complete sets of farm buildings, the last only a year before his death. He was known as a thrifty and prosperous farmer. Only a week before his death from a brain hemorrhage, he went to Sioux City to sell a load of cattle and returned with a new winter coat to surprise his wife. She wore it for the first time at his funeral ten days later. He died February 22, 1907, aged 54.

After his death Kamille kept up the farm and home with the help of their eleven surviving children. For a time she lived in Onawa so that the younger boys could go to high school. When most of the children were grown, she returned to the farm to keep house for her son, Viggo. She died December 1, 1944, aged 82, and is buried beside her husband in the cemetery of the church he helped to build.

They had thirteen children, all born on their parents' farm near Moorhead, Iowa: Hans Christian, Oscar Ludwig, Clara Victoria, Axel Theodore, Viggo Emil, Anna Kjerstine Marie Katrine, Agnes Louise, Fredrick Carl, Roy Bernhardt, two sons named Francis Marion, Sophus Walter, and Ernst Alfred.

71 HANS CHRISTIAN HANSEN was born August 3, 1883. He married on December 8, 1914, Alma Loretta Turney, who was born October 21, 1887, in Accident, Maryland, the daughter of Thomas Marshall Turney and Mary Margaret Schlossnagle. They lived for a time in Baltimore, Maryland, and at the time of Hans' death he was manager of a hardware store in Pittsburgh. He died January 16, 1927, aged 43, in Pittsburgh, and is buried at Oakland, Maryland. They had one son.

711 John Marshall Hansen was born March 27, 1925, in Pittsburgh. He married Audra Caroline Jones, who was born March 5, 1927, on June 25, 1950, in Oakland, Maryland. She is the daughter of Ernest Ray Jones and Tacy Maud Bowman. John is a detailman for Hoffman-La Roche Drug Company of Nutley, New Jersey, and they live at 936 East Kessler Boulevard, Indianapolis 20, Indiana. They have four children.
